 Dr. Halsted and his Practice.—Our readers and the public are not unfamiliar with the name of Dr. Halsted, the proprietor of the famous Round Hill Water Cure, in Northampton, Mass. The Doctor's treatment of disease, known as the 'Motorpathic System,' has produced wonderful and gratifying success, where all others signally falled. This is especially efficient where the body is debilitated, and 'Jran down.' It is also of marked merit in the cure of diseases incident to females, as many in this city can testify. We are knowing to many surprising cures effected by the Dector, and in cases where other physicians confessed themselves unable to accomplish any good. Being a physician of professional and scientific attainment, and having had the benefit of large experience and extensive practice, he can be consulted by all with entire confidence. His speciality, we should state, is the treatment of female diseases."—[Boston Atlas and Daily Bee.

AGAINST WIND AND TIDE.

BY HOLME LEE,

Anthor of "Kathie Brande," "Sylvan Holl's Danghter," etc.

One large 12mo. vol., 440 pages cloth. Price $1.

The new publishing season has commenced asspiciously; and the novel now before us is, by many degrees, the best specimen of Fiction that has been placed in our hands. With much of the terseness and vigor of Adam Bede,' it has a refinement which we do not find in that very clever work, and a combined hnowledge of the world and insight into character, which render the tale startlingly real and life-like. The plot unrawels itself is a masterly manner, and there are delicious little bits of prose and poetry scattered through the pages which make our breath come quicker and our pulses throb.

We more than sincerely—we critically—recommend to each and all, the admirably constructed and gracefully written tale—AGAINST WIND AND TIBE."

From the London Athensum, Dec. 10, 1859.

"We refer this nevel to any of the author's pravious ones—admirably constructed and gracefully written tale—AGAINST WIND AND TIDE."

From the London Athensum, Dec. 10, 1859.

"We prefer this novel to any of the author's previous ones—it bears marks of more matured talent. The story is interesting, and the character well designed.
We have met with few things superior to the account of Margaret Hawthorne sitting on the fallen tree, in the dim twilight, vraying to be delivered from evil and kept from temptation, knowing that the man who had cruelly and dishonorably wronged her toy an illegal marriage; had come back, and was, as ale celleved, steking her presence; but not knowing that he had returned a free man, with a design of atoning for past wrong, and winning present happiness, by marrying her truly.
There is no strong coloring, very few epithets; the incidents are true to the sife, and death; the reader is touched with a pity deeper than words or team can speak it."

ALSO, AT THE SAME TIME

LIFE BEFORE HIM.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.

One vol. 12mo., 400 pages, neat cloth. Price $1.

A story foll of smiration and spirit; fresh and sparkling in style and treatment. Its fathful delineations of the straggles of youth with poverty and low forture will awaken the interest and secure the sympathy of every reads.

"Townsend & Co. will issue, in a few weeks, a new American Novel, said, by these who have seen the proofs, to possess unusual ability, originality, and interest. The title—'Life Before Him'—'s indicative of a pretty broad field on which to marsanal the characters. The author a name is for the present withheld, the publishers thinaing that if the public are sufficiently pleased to call the writer before the cortain after the play, the surprise will be more agreeable than if amounced 'in the bills.'"

A NEW WORK by the Distinguished American Authorses, MRS. EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

THE HAUNTED HOMESTEAD.
WITH AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF THE AUTHOR,
Written by Herself.

MRS. EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.
Author of "The Lost Heiress," "Deserted Wife," "Missing Bride," "India," "Wife's Victory," "Retribution,"

"Curse of Clifton," "Vivia," "The Three Beauties," "The Discarded Daughter,"

"Lady of the Isle," etc.

Complete in one large duodecimo volume, neatly bound in cloth, for One Dollar and Twenty-Five Cents; or in two volumes, paper cover, for One Dollar.

The Publishers take great pleasure in being able to present to the American public another new and charming work by the pepular American Authoress, Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth. She is excelled by no living female writer in the world. Her style is free from inspidity on the one hand and bombast on the other; and though we meet with forcible, we are never startled with inflated language. Her characters are rarely under, but never overdrawn. Her scenes are life pictures, her incidents founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by a singular purity both of conception and expression. She has the rare faculty of saying what she means, and of saying it in such a finance as our meaning canhot be minimprived. In short, she possesses, in an eminent degree, those qualifications which are the peculiar prery spittees of a good writer; while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty, she applies home truths to their understanding with the force of rational conviction. The "Haunted Homestead" has been pronounced by those who have read the proof-sheets, to be her beat work. This is sufficient to commend it to perusal, and we saticipate for it great popularity.

The unexpected sale of this remarkable volume is everywhere the subject of amazement, and has been pronounced as the great fact of the publishing year.

The New-Orleans Deits says: "This remarkable work has produced an impression upon the reading public almost without parallel in late years. Such andacity and delicacy, such rigorous analysis and tender sentiment were scarcely ever before so artistically and effectively combined. The style of the work is it for its in portant theme—dignified, cloquent, vigorous, and chaste."
